

Touch-a-Truck

The Fellowship Ministry Team hosts Touch-a-Truck from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, September 19!

Touch-a-Truck is a family-friendly community event where children (and adults) can get up close to examine large vehicles and equipment — even the APC bus! Doyle the Gargoyle, mascot of the Greensboro Gargoyles, will make a special appearance.

Doyle the Gargoyle will be there!

This exciting, free event will be held on September 19 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the parking lot next to the Coble House.

The Alamance Lions Club will be there, selling hot dogs to eat; and brooms to sweep summer into autumn.

Put this on your calendar, and spread the word abroad!

This is a great way to invite the wider community to enjoy the event and experience the warmth and friendliness of APC members; and to learn about upcoming fellowship events.

We ask for many volunteers to make this community event a success. We need help with anything from traffic control/parking, garbage collection, setting up tables, assisting in accessing the Thin Place bathrooms, and more.

Think about where you would best fit as a volunteer, then reach out to Holly Causey Daas or Cathy Wray and offer your services.

Fellowship Team Mission Statement: To create opportunities both within and beyond the church setting for folks to engage with one another in events that promote fun, friendship, welcome and Christian love.

The Log College at Alamance

The Log College at Alamance is an exciting new educational initiative dedicated to nurturing the next generation of leaders within our community. We offer programs that focus on physical, mental, spiritual, financial, and vocational health. Our inaugural class of senior high students graduated last fall, and a new youth leadership development course is set to begin on September 12. For more information about our programs for both youth and adults, including an upcoming open class on college and job applications and interviewing skills scheduled for October 17, please visit the Log College webpage on alamancechurch.org. Feel free to reach out to Pastor Kyle Goodman at kyle@alamancechurch.org for any inquiries.
