

Beautiful Things

- Michael and Lisa Gungor

All this pain, I wonder if I'll ever find my way;
I wonder if my life could really change at all.

All this earth, could all that is lost ever be found;
could a garden come up from this ground at all?

You make beautiful things, you make beautiful things out of the dust.
You make beautiful things, you make beautiful things out of us.

All around hope is springing up from this old ground.
Out of chaos, life is being found in you.

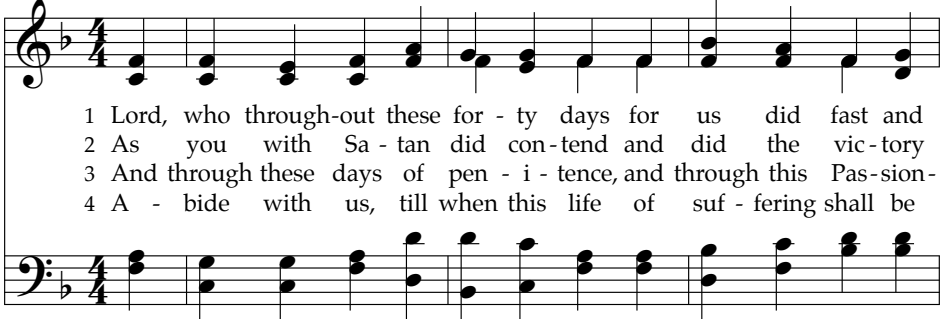

You make beautiful things, you make beautiful things out of the dust.
You make beautiful things, you make beautiful things out of us.

You make beautiful things, you make beautiful things out of the dust.
You make beautiful things, you make beautiful things out of us.

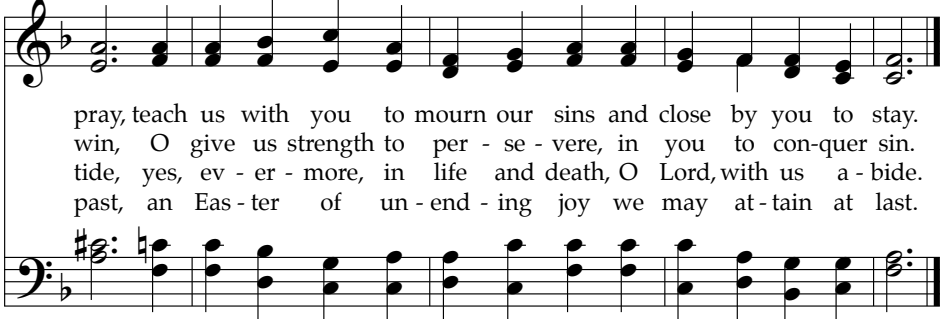

You make me new, you are making me new.
You make me new, you are making me new.

You make beautiful things, you make beautiful things out of the dust.
You make beautiful things, you make beautiful things out of us.

Like many of this author's hymns, this text was written primarily for children but works equally well in reminding adults how Lent connects us with Christ's temptation in the wilderness and prepares us for Easter. The 16th-century English psalm tune provides sturdy support.
