

* One asterisk means to stand, as you are able.

After worship, the minister stands at the side door, the closest exit for those with special needs.

Citations for references used during worship are available from the ministers, upon request.

The New Revised Standard Version of the Bible is used during worship, unless otherwise noted.

A lectionary is a selection of Bible readings to be used for worship and study.

This congregation uses the Revised Common Lectionary, which follows the liturgical year in a three-year cycle. Its scriptural recommendations complement the current season of the liturgical year.

One: God does not see as mortals see.

give us eyes to see as you see!
One: Once we lived in darkness;
but now, as children of light,
we are called to what is good, right, and true.

Prayer of Confession

God, we confess our blindness. We fail to see the needs of others, choosing selfish ends instead. We turn a blind eye toward injustice and tragedy, choosing our own comfort. We try to hide who we really are, choosing to project a false image of ourselves. We do not see the truth, because we ask for the same tired lies. Forgive us, God. Help us to see, not with eyes, but with our heart. Help us to choose a better way. In Jesus' name, amen.

Weekly Poem Sonnet 19: When I Consider
- John Milton

When I consider how my light is spent,
ere half my days, in this dark world and wide,
and that one Talent which is death to hide lodged with me useless, though my Soul more bent
to serve therewith my Maker, and present
my true account, lest he returning chide;
"Doth God exact day-labor, light denied?"
I fondly ask. But patience to prevent that murmur, soon replies, "God doth not need either man's work or his own gifts; who best bear his mild yoke, they serve him best. His state is Kingly. Thousands at his bidding speed and post o'er Land and Ocean without rest:
They also serve who only stand and wait."

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper
